PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that Maricela QUIROZ-Espinal is a citizen of a country other than the United States; that said alien has admitted she is deportable; that her testimony is material; that it is impracticable to secure her attendance at trial by subpoena; and that she is a material witness in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On November 18, 2007 at approximately 7:55 AM Patrick MOLL (Defendant) made application for admission into the United States at the San Ysidro Port of Entry as the driver and sole visible occupant of a 1989 Honda Accord. Defendant did not have any type of valid identification and explained to the primary Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer that other officers had already checked his vehicle prior to arriving to the primary inspection area. Defendant stated his wife owns the vehicle and that he was not bringing anything back from Mexico. Defendant went on to explain that he lives in Mexico and was on his way to work. The CBP Officer noticed the vehicle had no prior crossing history. Defendant and the vehicle were referred to secondary for a more thorough inspection.

In secondary, a CBP Officer inspected the vehicle and noticed a hollow space between the rear seat cushion and the backrest. The officer removed the seat and discovered a human being concealed inside a non-factory compartment where the gas tank of the vehicle should be located. The individual was determined to be a citizen of Mexico without legal documents to enter the United States. The individual was retained as a Material Witness and is now identified as Maricela QUIROZ-Espinal.

During a video-recorded interview, Material Witness declared she is a citizen of Mexico without legal documents to enter the United States. Material Witness stated her husband made arrangements and was going to pay $2,500.00 USD for her to be smuggled into the United States. Material Witness stated she was going to Santa Ana, California.
